

Twin Cities Adult Education Alliance (TCAEA) Fall 2007 Scholarship Program Application

The Twin Cities Adult Education Alliance (TCAEA), established in 2002, is an association of area public and private colleges and universities that cater to the educational needs of working adults.

The mission of TCAEA is to serve as an educational resource to the Twin Cities corporate community, as well as the community at large, by providing increased awareness of accredited, business-related higher education opportunities for working adults in the Twin Cities metropolitan area primarily through education fairs.

This program is designed to assist the growing number of adult learners, like you, who are returning to college. TCAEA scholarships may be used towards the cost of attendance (tuition, books, fees, etc.) at your institution as determined by the financial aid department.

ELIGIBILITY:

To be eligible for the scholarship program, you must meet the following criteria:

- Employed at a company/organization who hosted an education fair or TCAEA community event between August 2006 and July 2007
- Enrolled in or admitted to a degree or certificate program (credit or non-credit) at a college or university which is a member of the TCAEA organization (see list on next page)
- Attending (or plan to attend) your educational institution on a part-time or full-time basis
- New or current student

AWARDS

- Scholarships may be awarded up to $500.00
- If you are selected as a recipient, the award payment will be made to your institution's office of financial aid
- Recipients of the TCAEA Scholarship Program will be informed by letter, (verification of enrollment and/or acceptance will be required prior to scholarship being disbursed)

THE APPLICATION MUST INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING:

- Completed application form (see additional sheet)
- Personal statement (see description below)
- One letter from a professional reference - someone familiar with your work and interests (please include with application - do not have it sent separately)

PERSONAL STATEMENT

In 1000 typed words or less, tell us about yourself and your personal and career goals. Explain how continuing your education will help you reach your goals and why this scholarship is important to you.

DEADLINE:

- Applications (application form, personal statement, and reference letter) for scholarships awarded for Fall 2007 must be postmarked no later than August 1, 2007.
- Incomplete applications and those received after the deadline will not be considered.
- Please submit your completed application form to:
